Autumn Term 25

Edition 1

NEWSLETTER

Welcome to our first OPAL newsletter – we hope to share with you a sample of some of the amazing creative and imaginative play experiences your children have been involved in.

Dig zone report:

kids found 'ancient treasure.' Archaeologists remain unconvinced.

Stradbroke Café:

now taking bookings. Today's special—enthusiastic entrées served with big smiles.

Tree climbers and slack-line balancers: building strength, confidence, and maybe a little suspense for the adults watching.

Homemade games + huge school grounds

= endless adventure.

Small world zone:

where tiny people live and big imaginations run the place

Future architects at work, plans may include towers, forts, and absolutely no planning permission.
